

Auburn District Cricket Club

Est.1951

www.auburncricket.org

'Many Cultures Playing Together As One Club'

Background

- Auburn District Cricket Club was founded in 1951 and is based at Mona Park, Mona Street, Auburn.
The club is also known as the Auburn Eagles.
- Auburn DCC fields junior teams ranging in ages from U/10 to U/16. The junior teams play on synthetic wickets and have their home grounds close to Mona Park. The club also has its own Auburn Eagles Cricket Academy, as well as a Woolworth Blast program for boys and girls from 6 to 9 years of age.
- The club has an established Junior Pathway program, where juniors progress to play senior cricket for the club.
- Auburn DCC' senior teams all play on turf wickets, against teams from across the Sydney metropolitan area, with Grades 1-5 playing in the highly competitive Sydney Shires Competition. Whilst other senior teams play in limited over competitions
- Auburn DCC has produced some high-quality cricketers over the years, two notable ones being, Australian International fast bowler, Mitchell Starc and former Tasmania First Class all-rounder, Andrew Downton.

Mission Statement

- To strive to be a leading example in developing and fostering the integration of multi-culturalism in the sport of cricket, with a particular emphasis on targeting children and youths of both genders.
- To always endeavour to provide a harmonious environment for all players across a wide cross section of ethnicity to play and enjoy their cricket.

Contact Details

Email: Secretary@auburncricket.com

Website: www.auburncricket.org

Facebook: f/AuburnDistrictCricket Club

Major sponsor:

